

Darlene Watman

- A dynamic presenter/facilitator/coach with 30+ years of experience assisting organizations and their people achieve their goals through education, training and facilitation.
- Skilled at working with leaders and management teams to clarify goals and identify how to work effectively together.
- Appreciated for bringing out the best in people and groups by tapping into their own knowledge and experience to identify options and develop strategic solutions
- Leads groups to make decisions to take their goals and organizations forward.
- Holds an established reputation for excellence and reliability, and bringing a solution focus to my work.