

Sarah Hoffmann

Sarah Hoffmann has been with the Ministry of Municipal Affairs since 2001. Her first exposure to the municipal elections file was through AMCTO's Municipal Elections Project Team nearly ten years ago, and she became the Ministry's Policy Lead for the Municipal Elections Act in 2010. She has spent much of the past year analysing suggestions and options for improving the MEA and figuring out how to translate these suggestions into legislative amendments. She estimates she has four more municipal elections to go before retirement.
